

Name: Class: Date: Score:

1. Replace the nouns underlined in the sentence with appropriate pronouns. (1 mark)

Amy put on Amy's coat and gloves then Amy left the house and walked out into the snow.

↑

↑

2. Write an appropriate adverbial phrase for the start of this sentence. (1 mark)

After a good night's sleep, James jumped out of bed.

3. Tick to show whether the apostrophe has been used for omission or possession. (1 mark)

	Apostrophe for possession	Apostrophe for omission
It was Malcolm's birthday and he was very excited.	☒	☐
He couldn't believe how many people were coming for his party.	☐	☒
Katy couldn't carry the present by herself as it was too heavy!	☐	☒
"It's a bike!" cried Katy excitedly.	☐	☒

4. Rewrite this sentence including the correct speech punctuation. (1 mark)

It's so nice to see you exclaimed Habiba how was your holiday?

"It's so nice to see you!" exclaimed Habiba, "How was your holiday?"

5. Tick the sentence that uses speech punctuation correctly.

(1 mark)

"It's time to go home, shouted" Tyrese's mum.

☐

It's time to go home, "shouted Tyrese's mum.

☐

"It's time to go home," shouted Tyrese's mum.

☒

"It's time to go home, shouted Tyrese's mum."

☐

6. Insert the missing punctuation to this sentence.

(1 mark)

Later that day, I heard the bad news.

7. Circle the correct verb form to complete these sentences.

(1 mark)

I (did / done) my homework quickly as I wanted to go out to play.

The geese (was / were) chasing after me, trying to get the food.

Wendy (plays / play) with her dolls before bed.

8. Underline the subordinate clauses in these sentences.

(1 mark)

Sarah and her dad jumped when the doorbell rang unexpectedly.

Before his exams started, Joshua revised every day.

Filled with excitement, the children rushed towards the fireworks display.

9. Rewrite these sentences with all the correct punctuation.

(1 mark)

it was early on monday morning the sahaq family needed to get up early to catch a flight to greece

It was early on Monday morning. The Sahaq family needed to get up early to catch a flight to Greece.

10. Circle all the words which are synonyms of the word: sometimes.

(1 mark)

frequently

occasionally

often

infrequently

11. What prefix can be used in front of all three words?

_____ cycle

_____ lingual

_____ annual

bi

12. Circle the suffixes which can be added to the word: prevent.

(1 mark)

ly

al

able

ence

13. Tick to identify which tense these sentences are written in.

(1 mark)

	Past tense	Present tense	Future tense
Next year, we will be going to Egypt on holiday.	☐	☐	☒
The train departed the station.	☒	☐	☐
Sarah places her hand in the air to answer the question.	☐	☒	☐
It was a dark and stormy night.	☒	☐	☐

14. Write an appropriate preposition in the sentence.

(1 mark)

Alysha found her iPod underneath/next to/ beside her bed.

15. Circle all the nouns in this sentence.

(1 mark)

As the sun slowly rose in the golden sky, Barry lifted up his brand new binoculars and strained his eyes looking for the rare Golden Eagle.

16. In this sentence, identify the noun (n), verb (v), adverb (a) and preposition (p). (1 mark)

My mother insists on me always wearing a hat on my head and carefully applying sun cream.

17. Complete the table to show the singular and plural versions of these words. (1 mark)

Singular	Plural
leaf	leaves
hare	hares
brush	brushes

18. Insert the conjunctions in the correct place in the sentence. (1 mark)

when

if

or

When it was time for bed, Zoe had to decide if she wanted to listen to a story or watch television.

19. Circle all the determiners in the sentences. (1 mark)

Layek picked an apple out of the fruit bowl.
Jemima saw a lion at the zoo.

20. Rewrite this sentence so that it contains an expanded noun phrase.

James saw an ambulance.

James saw an ambulance with flashing blue and red lights.

(Answers may vary)